Welcome to the UW! The following components should be completed, in recommended order, prior to the start of FALL Quarter.

1. Reserve for Advising & Orientation
   More information at: fyp.washington.edu/orientation

2. Measles Immunization
   All UW Seattle students are required to provide proof of measles immunity. Students will not be allowed to register for any classes until they have completed the UW Measles vaccination requirement.
   More information at: fyp.washington.edu/measles

3. University 101
   The Advising and Orientation (A&O) process requires the completion of a pre-orientation online component called University 101 (U101).
   More information at: fyp.washington.edu/u101

4. Advising & Orientation
   Complete Enrollment Certification Request Paperwork
   - The Enrollment Certification Request must be signed by your advisor each quarter and turned in either in person to the Veterans Education Benefits Office in Schmitz Hall room 520 or via email at veteran@uw.edu.
   - Print necessary forms from: http://veteran.uw.edu under “Forms”
   - Connect with Student Veteran Life and Husky Veterans
   - Meet the team of Student Veteran Life during lunch and after your advising appointment. To learn more about SVL, vetlife.washington.edu and Husky Veterans, facebook.com/UW.HUMV

More resources for student veterans:
- Veterans Education Benefits Office (VEBO), Schmitz Hall, Room 520, is your resource for all of your GI Bill, Vocational Rehabilitation, and financial aid needs. If you have any questions relating to benefits or financial aid, call (206)543-6122, stop into Schmitz 520, or email veteran@uw.edu.
- Student Veteran Life (SVL), Husky Union Building (HUB), Room 327, provides mentorship, community building, academic support, and all other non-financial related support services to student veterans.
- Disability Resources for Students, Mary Gates Hall (MGH), room 011, offers services such as alternative test taking, note takers, and classroom relocation among others. (206)543-8924, drstest@uw.edu
